

Dodworth St. John the Baptist C of E Primary Academy
Anti Bullying Policy
December 2024-25

Review Date: September 2025

This policy will be reviewed at least annually, and following any concerns and/or updates to national/local guidance or procedure.

Objectives of this Policy

Dodworth St John's Primary School is committed to providing a safe and inclusive learning environment for all students. We recognize the detrimental impact of bullying on individuals' well-being and academic progress. Our anti-bullying policy is based on the latest research and best practices to prevent and address bullying effectively. This policy outlines what Dodworth St John's Primary School will do to prevent and tackle bullying. The policy has been drawn up through the involvement of the whole school community and we are committed to developing an anti-bullying culture whereby no bullying, including between adults or adults and children and young people will be tolerated. This policy aligns with UK government legislation and best practises to ensure proactive measures are in place to prevent and address bullying incidents effectively.

As a school, we are engaged with The Barnsley Safeguarding Children Partnership's Anti-Bullying Strategy 2022-2025. This strategy provides a framework setting out how Barnsley Council and its partners will tackle bullying and harassment involving Barnsley children and young people in educational and community settings.

Definition of bullying

We define bullying as any repeated, intentional, and harmful behaviour, whether physical, verbal, or psychological, that involves a power imbalance and causes distress or harm to an individual or group. This includes cyberbullying, prejudice-based bullying, and discriminatory bullying.

Bullying can be defined as "behaviour by an individual or a group, repeated over time that intentionally hurts another individual either physically or emotionally". (DfE "Preventing and Tackling Bullying", July 2017)

- Bullying can include name calling, taunting, mocking, making offensive comments; kicking; hitting; taking belongings; producing offensive graffiti; gossiping; excluding people from groups and spreading hurtful and untruthful rumours.
- This includes the same unacceptable behaviours expressed online, sometimes called online or cyberbullying. This can include: sending offensive, upsetting and inappropriate messages by phone, text, instant messenger, through gaming, websites, social media sites and apps, and sending offensive or degrading photos or videos.
- Bullying is recognised by the school as being a form of child-on-child abuse. It can be emotionally abusive and can cause severe and adverse effects on children's emotional development.

Rude vs Mean vs Bullying (Anti-Bullying Alliance)

- Rude Behaviour is inadvertently saying or doing something that hurts someone else. Rude behaviour is often unintentional and can stem from thoughtlessness, poor manners or momentary lapses in judgement. While it may cause hurt feelings, it is not deliberate in its intent to harm.
- Mean Behaviour is purposefully saying or doing something to hurt someone once (or maybe twice). Mean behaviour is characterised by its intentional nature to cause harm, but it is often isolated or infrequent. It may arise from temporary anger, jealousy or other negative emotions.
- Bullying is the repetitive, intentional hurting of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power. Bullying is a serious form of mistreatment that goes beyond rude or mean behaviour. It is characterised by the following elements:
 - Repetitive: It occurs repeatedly over time, not just once or twice.
 - Intentional: The actions are deliberate and meant to cause harm, either physically or emotionally.
 - Power Imbalance: The perpetrator has some form of power over the victim, whether it's physical strength, social status or other factors.
 - Targeted: It is often aimed at certain individuals or groups, for example, because of race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation.
